

Virgin Media O2 - Children's Online Safety Test

At Virgin Media O2, we want internet users of all ages to enjoy all the wonderful things the web has to offer, safely. That's why our experts have created a children's internet safety test to help build awareness for parents and children of all ages to ensure they are better protected online.

We think it would be a perfect addition to an already fantastic list and wondered whether you could consider including Virgin Media with the following URL:
